Get engaged in the top-of-the class Finnish school education in Tokyo!

The Finnish School in Tokyo invites you and your company to get engaged in and support the school's important work as a promoter of Finnish language and culture in Japan. It can be easily done via a sponsorship program of the school available both for enterprises as well as for private persons.

The Finnish School in Tokyo is a school for children between 3 to 18 years of age whose parent or parents are Finnish or who are otherwise interested in Finland and Finnish language, tells Eija Pajarinen, Chairman and one of the four Finnish teachers of the school. There are children from various backgrounds enrolled in the school. Some of them are permanently living in Japan while others are only stopping by for a year or two together with their parents. For the semester 2011-2012 there are 28 children attending the classes that are currently held once or twice a month.

The teachers have experience in teaching and working with children and youth in Finland and have a teacher's education or corresponding degree. Therefore, the children are privileged to enjoy the same teaching methods that are used in Finnish schools generally.

Joining the sponsorship program means that the company or individual supports the school financially, in a form of an annual fee, the sponsor has a possibility to attend the various school activities. Naturally, the names of the sponsors will be highlighted in the school's homepage, information letters and other communications, Pajarinen continues.

The annual fee is set for 2,000 JPY for an individual sponsor and minimum of 20,000 JPY for an enterprise sponsor.

In recent years, interest in the Finnish school system in overall has rocketed also in Japan since Finland has consistently scored at the top in various international education related surveys.

from the boardroom

Jaahas (そうですね),

Someone once said that the most difficult leadership skill to learn is when to give up. I can fully support that thought. I have been active in FCCJ for over a decade. In 2001 starting as the Auditor, then 10 years as a Board Member - including my 5 year stint as FCCJ's (so far) longest serving President. Those Presidential years eventually proved to be very lucky and successful not only for me but - I hope - also for the FCCJ. During the middle of my term I was luckily in a Consultant position where I could myself decide when and what for to use my time - with the financial reality limits, of course. But with that "freedom" I could really dig deep into the soul of the real FCCJ, understand it and what it should do to benefit its members the best possible while achievable ways.

By that time the Board had already realised that we need to revive ourselves, provide new benefits to our members, bring new member representatives to our events ("FCCJ membership is a company Membership, not its member companies' President's elite club"), and become an integral part of European chambers' cooperation in Japan. We invented the ever-popular Klubi evenings that still attract younger employees of member companies. We offered our organizational skills to the common benefit of other foreign Chambers in Japan like in the biannual Business Confidence Survey. We became very active in the EBC, ending up having two chairs in their BoG meetings (just like the Finnish President and Prime Minister used to have in EU) - even still those meetings are joined not only by FCCJ President but also the EBC Treasurer who has been "well trained" in the FCCJ environment.

With all these big and many more small revisions, changes and adjustments I believe we have managed to recreate an even stronger and livelier FCCJ than it has always been. There is some material proof of it as well: even in these hard Japanese business conditions, FCCJ has become one of the most flourishing foreign Chamber in Japan! In such a situation the time has come again to think for the next steps and who should be taking them.

I have enjoyed all the years at the service of the FCCJ Membership! I would not change a single thing that I've been involved with (even some projects succeeded worse than the others). However, 10 years should be enough for a single person in voluntary work and also should open up positions to new thinkers with new and bright ideas that us veterans could not even come up with. Thus, after long consideration I have decided not to continue in the new FCCJ Board starting April 1st 2012 but to give my seat to someone with fresh new ideas and energy and time to push them through. I warmly thank all FCCJ members who elected me to these positions and my colleagues in the Board who sometimes followed my lead and sometimes made me follow theirs. That's real team work at the best, based on mutual trust that is so rare nowadays.

This is not a goodbye since I'll continue as a regular FCCJ member so you'll see me around (is that positive or negative news?). It's just the time to give the baton to someone who has the same or more energy and loads of ideas as I used to have 10 looooooong years ago - all for the benefit of FCCJ and it's members. "Times they are a changin' ", as Bob Dylan used to sing in my youth. Another sign to go (don't ask me who is Bob Dylan or I'll feel old...)

Warmest thanks to your wonderful support,

Mika Mäkinen

Looking for an apartment or office in Tokyo?

Perhaps you did not know that help finding a new apartment or office in Tokyo is closer that you might think. The staff of the FCCJ office are also involved in real estate brokerage through a company called Tokyo Lease Consulting (www.finland.co.jp/tlc/)

Our clients include most of the Finnish organizations in Japan as well as as a large number of Finnish affiliated companies and individuals. Most recent projects include a new office for Honka Japan in a prime location on Aoyama dori (more about this in next issue) and apartments for two of the heads of Finnish organizations in Tokyo.

The advantage is that you get personalized service in your own language (Finnish, Swedish, English or Japanese) and advice and opinions from someone you know and trust. We spend a lot of efforts on searching and pre-screening according to customer's requirements and wishes before viewing potential apartments. This saves a lot of time for the costumer and in 80% of the cases we have handled, the new apartment has been found on the first day of viewing. A truly on stop shop for your housing or office needs as we source potential objects from all owners' agents in Tokyo. Although, at least we think, our service exceeds what you get from other real estate agents, the cost is same.

Please give us a try if you plan to move or if you have new staff moving to Tokyo! Contact the FCCJ office at 03-5725-9596 or email: fccj@gol.com

You define, we find it!

Bringing Christmas Spirit to Children of Tohoku with the Santa Project

東北の子供たちにフィンランドのクリスマスを届けるプロジェクト

On 6 December an unlikely troupe consisting of a real Finnish Santa Claus, an eight-member choir from Lapland and a professional player of the traditional Finnish instrument kantele joined forces with Japanese and Finnish university students and set out on a trip to Tohoku. For four days the group performed music and book-reading for some 2000 children in the stricken areas while Santa and his helpers gave presents to them all.

The idea for the project came from Professor Genjiro Ito of Kanto Gakuin University - an old friend of Finland. At the same time his students at Kanto Gakuin University were pondering of ways to ease the pain of children in Tohoku. So they combined forces and also asked for help from the Embassy of Finland in Tokyo.

Apart from the Embassy, the project was sponsored also by the FCCJ and a number of Japanese organizations. The committee for the Santa Project had distinguished members such as Mr Sadakazu Tanigaki, President of Liberal Democratic Party, Mr Masahiro Ouga, CEO of Shogakkan Publishing and Mr Yoshiharu Fukuhara, Honorary Chairman of Shiseido Company, Ltd.

12月6日、フィンランドからやってきた本物のサンタクロースと、ラップランドからやってきた8人の合唱団、そしてフィンランドの伝統楽器カントレの奏者が、日本とフィンランドの大学生らと組んで東北へのチャリティーツアーを行った。4日間の滞在期間中、訪問団は被災地域に住む約2000人の子供たちのために音楽を演奏し、本の読み聞かせを行った。また、サンタはスタッフと共にプレゼントを全員に配った。
